

Robert & Karen Pinkston

QUEBEC

Today for our prayer time, we're going to Canada. Two of our missionaries, Robert and Sharon Pinkston, serve there, in Quebec. That's a province, sort of like one of our states. That's where most of Canada's eight million French-speakers live. Folks, most of them are lost! Only about 40,000 of those eight million are followers of Christ. Hundreds of towns in Quebec have no Christian church of any kind.

We have sent Robert and Sharon into a huge, challenging mission field! Our church is supporting them financially through our Cooperative Program giving. But clearly they need our prayer support as well.

Many people in Quebec would respond to the gospel if they could just hear it, Robert says. Plus, he says the people are searching for solutions to fill their spiritually empty hearts. Many Canadians who hear the gospel for the first time say, "That's exactly what I've been looking for!"

Let's pray that Robert and Sharon can plant many new churches that will share the gospel. Let's ask God to call out hundreds more missionaries for Canada. Let's ask God to move in Southern Baptist hearts and increase their missions giving to send them.
